Dear Mr. Koeppen:

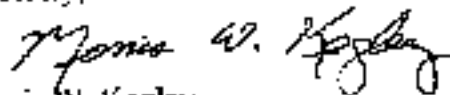

In response to your letter dated September 28, 2001, addressed to Mr. Brian Bonell, please be advised that we have completed the search of the records of the AngloGold Political Action Committee ("the Committee"). The Committee records show that the Committee met the requirements for a multi-candidate political committee as of October 6, 1998. You will find enclosed herewith the original Notification Of Multicandidate Status for filing with the Federal Election Commission.

In accordance with our recent telephone conversation, I would like to acknowledge and confirm that in counting the fifty-one necessary contributions to the Committee, we have counted the separate contributions (even if more than one came from the same individual) rather than the separate contributors. For example, if an employee made contributions via semi-monthly payroll deductions, then in a given year that employee made twenty-four separate and countable contributions.

Inasmuch as the Committee qualified as a multi-candidate political committee as of October 6, 1998, it appears that the distributions in question to the Ensign For Senate committee on October 19, 2000 ($1,000) and on October 24, 2000 ($500) are within the allowable limit. I hope this information is sufficient to answer your prior question. If you should need further information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Thank you for your cooperation and assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

Morris W. Kegley
Associate General Counsel
